

IL VANGELO SECONDO MATTEI

The Gospel According to Mattei (Il vangelo secondo Mattei)

In this redemptive story, a cynical director returns to Italy, looking for a cinematic success. His project entitled “The Gospel according to Mattei” is inspired by a 1964 film masterpiece by Pier Paolo Pasolini, which was primarily shot in the town of Matera. His protagonist in the documentary film is Franco Gravela, an elderly gentleman who, as a kid, had participated in Pasolini’s film and has always dreamed of being an actor. This movie is not yet released in Italy.
